RESIDENT CONFIDENCE

Results of the February 2010 REDC Resident Confidence Survey were collected between 9-26 February 2010. 172 residents responded to the survey. Of these respondents, 68.6% were from the Mackay Regional Council area, 26.2% were from the Whitsunday Regional Council area and 5.2% were from the Isaac Regional Council area.

Respondents were asked to indicate their level of confidence in their current economic situation.

JOB & FINANCIAL SECURITY

Respondents were asked to indicate how their level of job and financial security compared to twelve months ago.

Employment Opportunities

When asked whether or not they were confident about their employment opportunities in 2010, 58.5% of respondents indicated that they were confident and 41.5% indicated that they were not.

Services

When asked about the services that would be utilised if offered for free, the most selected services by residents were Financial Planning (36.97%), Retraining (19.39%) and Employment Assistance (6.67%).
